

Memorial Book

In Loving Memory of

Howard Leighton Alfred Bando

(November 12, 1968 - October 21, 2008)

A man should not leave this earth with unfinished business. He should live each day as if it was a pre-flight check. He should ask each morning, am I prepared to lift-off?

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Howard Leighton Alfred Badoo who was born in United Kingdom on November 12, 1968, and passed away on October 21, 2008 around 8:00 p.m. in Pasco County Florida. He was 39 years old.

Howard and his new bride of 3 days, while on their way to their honeymoon were traveling south on Highway 41, and were involved in a fatal head-on collision with another vehicle headed north. Our beloved Howard was killed instantly. His bride Magali, suffered severe injuries to her lower extremities and was airlifted to St Joesph's hospital in Tampa FL.

We give God glory for the great transformation that took place in Howard's life before his death. He became a man on a mission and over the last 4 months worked with joy and excitement to win souls for God. He felt that he would die soon, and always said "It's ok, I'm ready to go be with the lord". Howard was changed from the inside out! He faithfully went to bible study, worship service, men's fellowship, and read his Bible and prayed everyday. He single handedly planned his wedding in 6 weeks while seeking God and praying every step of the way. He had a vision, a mission and a goal and there was no stopping him. Anyone that knew Howard, knew he was changed. He will be missed and will live forever be in our memories and hearts.

Please light a candle for Howard or express a memory or two about Howie on the memories and or the condolence page link.

This is a very sad time for all. Life is a gift for all of us and when it is taken away from us prematurely it is a reminder of the power of the Lord. This was a call to be in a better place and life will continue for all of us left behind. We all have our time to be called to exit this world and move on to a better place. I am sending my blessing to Sonia and family. May God bless you in your time of mourning and keep you strong. My prays goes out to all who has been affected by this sad event. God bless you all.

Friend and Sister in the Lord

November 1, 2008

Dearest Sonia and Badoo Family,

May God's Grace be sufficient for you. May HIS strong arms hold you and comfort you - May you hear the voice of our sweet Jesus whispering his comfort in to the deepest parts of your soul, Sonia and may His Presence be your covering in the days ahead. I pray that you will not be afraid to release your tears in to the gentle hands of our Lord because He will collect them and treasure them, Sonia.

May God's love hold and keep you and your family. I love you deeply.

Your friend and sister Carmen.

Deepest Condolence

October 31, 2008

Losing someone dearly loved is tragic, but when we know that we will see that person again, that he only went ahead momentarily, it comforts us to know he is now with His maker and eventually we will be together again. Howard is now with those that departed before him, such as his father and brother. The Bible states that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We hereby offer our deepest condolences to Sonia, Sharon and his immediate family.

Our prayers are with you,

Janet Martinez

Our Future Hope

October 31, 2008

Sister Badoo,

I received the news of your loss from Sister Jeanette Hernandez. My heart goes out to you and your family at this time. Though we believe in the Lord, the pain we feel at the loss of a loved one is real and must be expressed. God understands our pain and our need to grieve because He formed us in this way. Howard's life and love story have greatly encouraged me. I will continue to pray without ceasing for my loved ones who are running from the Lord. Our future hope lies only in the Lord. God's Grace, Love and Mercy were evidenced in Howard's life. In the difficult days ahead that bound to come, may you find peace in the assurance that Howard will forever be in the presence of the Father. I will continue to lift you all up in prayer, but please let me know if there is any way in which I can serve you: (347) 277-6639.

God Bless You My Sister,

Elizabeth Texidor-Bonilla, RN

Ross Family

Orlando, FL

October 31, 2008

To the Badoo Family, the entire Ross family in Orlando, would like to extend a heartfelt condolence to all of you. May God's peace find your hearts and the strength to carry on in the midst of this tragedy. Howard was loved and will be missed, however the Lord did prepare his heart before he left us. We are here for each and everyone of you. May God's blessings be with both the Badoo's and Maggie's Family. As extended members of your family, we all wish you our Deepest Sympathy.

Jeannette Hernandez

GOD'S LOVE

October 31, 2008

Badoo family, Mrs. Magaly Badoo. My deepest sympathy to all. You are all in prayers constantly. God will be your comfort. Howard is resting in the arms of our savior tonight. Weep no more God is your comfort. My condolences to you all.

Mrs. Sonia May you be comforted

October 30, 2008

Sonia and the family, I know the storms of life seem like they keep on rolling in your lives but as long as you know that this was in God master plan, you and your family can stand. I'm reminded of Matthew 5:4 were the Lord said "Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted." Sonia stay strong in Lord and the power of his might. I'll keep you and your family in my prayers.

With love Joel (classmate)

FROM THE HEART

October 29, 2008

To The Badoo Family May the peace of God continue to overshadow all of you during this time . You have my deepest condolences yet, its a blessing to know that Howard is in the resting arms of the Father, and so therefore you can rest as the Father comforts you. My memories of Howard and Maggie are of us growing up in the Brooklyn Tabernacle. After hearing what the Lord has done in Howard's life, i am encouraged to know that no matter how high the hurdles get in my lane, as long as I keep my eyes on the prize I will leap high enough to win this race. I AM GOING TO WIN HOWARD. My prayers are with you. Yvette Hamilton

Psalm 91

October 29, 2008

Sonia: I am so sorry to hear of your loss. During the times that are most toughest to us, we can always lean on the Lord. Psalm 91 is my favorite. May you lean on the Lord and keep this within your heart.

Psalm 91:1-4 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord "He is my refuge, and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

May God Bless you always.

To the Badoo Family:

October 29, 2008

Please accept my condolences for your loss. While I did not know your loved one personally, we have all been affected by the grief death causes.

Revelation 21:3-5 promises that soon death will be eliminated. John 11:28,29 further assures us that we can look forward to seeing our loved ones again. How we look forward to that day!

I hope these scriptures serve as a comfort to you and your family as they have me.

Thank You

October 28, 2008

God has used this miraculous story to impact my life in such a powerful way.

I remember driving off to Bible School with Howard and Samantha... Howard said, "Guys, I know that God's hand is on me and that I keep running from Him, but I want to serve Him with all my heart and that's why I'm going with you to bible school". In reflecting this past week on the mercy of God in my life, the mercy of God in Howard's life...What can I say but Blessed be the Name of the Lord! Sister Badoo, I love you and our family and church here in Chicago are praying for you and the family. Maggy, I would love to reunite with you...It has been so many years. Please let me know how I can pray, help and stand with you during this time. (773) 808-4905. God will show Himself mighty and powerful to you... You are an angel!

Howard and Maggy's story has made me want to give my all, like never before to God and His plan for my life - what else matters?

Howard, we want to be where you are.

To the Badoo family, I send my most heartfelt condolences. I had the pleasure of meeting and working with Howard at Fedex many years ago. Everyone there loved him and he was always the person you wanted to be around when you were having a bad day. He was a truly beautiful and loyal friend and I speak for all of his fellow buddies at Fedex when I say that he will truly be missed. May God be truly pleased with the happiness that he spread to everyone he came in contact with. My prayers are with you all. And to Howie, I will truly miss you, my friend. God Bless You.

With Thoughts of You

October 28, 2008

Dear Sister Badoo, It's been so long but the Badoo family left a stamp at The Brooklyn Tabernacle. We still remember you and how what a devoted mother and woman of God you were and still are today. I remember how every Sunday you made sure your children were in church with you. What a legacy you have planted. We know that soon we will reunite with David and Howard. Our prayers are with you. Love,

Aretha Cross

Our deepest condolences

October 28, 2008

Sister Badoo, my Badoo brothers, sister Sharon, and friend Maggie, words can't express the sadness that I feel at the homegoing of my childhood buddy who remained a faithful friend throughout these years. He always had a way of making his "sis" feel so very special. I share in your pain and grief, and also rejoice, because I saw first hand what the Lord has done! My brother called me and told me that he "ran back to Cross!" and oh, how I rejoiced with him when he called to tell me the great news. I know that He has started his forever life and he is truly at peace! No more pain, no more sorrow. What a day it will be when we all get together again! Maggie, you truly were Howie's soulmate. Not only did he turn back to God to find true joy, but God blessed him to find you and experience true love. He was happier than I have ever seen him. To Howard's son...you dad was so very proud of you. He truly loved you with all of his heart. Just the thought of you brought him so much joy. Honor your dad's memory by serving and loving God with all of your heart, mind, soul, and strength!

Sister Badoo and Family:

My heart is full. I've been praying that the Lord surrounds you, your family and Maggie with comfort during this time. I pray that he wraps his awesome arms around you and your family. I knew Howard back during the BT days on Flatbush Avenue. What comforts me is that after reading about Howard's life, he is basking with the Lord right now. How awesome is that?

The Badoo family are in my thoughts each day.

Much love,

Andrea

Badoo Family - Howard was Benjamin's brother, that made him my brother. I fell for him the minute I met him. Big smile! Always positive... My prayers are with you at this time, may they bring you peace. Magaly, words cannot express my emotions, know that you brought Howard the peace and love he was searching for his entire life. May the love of God comfort you, knowing that Howard is home with our father. I was blessed to know him, and I will pass on his life's teaching to others.

I just would like to say that I know Howard is with the Lord. My prayers go out to you, Sister Badoo and your family, who helped me when I was a very young man in Brooklyn, your advice to Anna and I prior to our marriage in 1977 has blessed us. Your prayerful attitude at Bkly Tabernacle was an inspiration to both of us . Its now 31 years later and we still have a deep memory of you and little David (Bless him), Conrad ,

Peter and Howard. Though I had only remembered Howard as a child, it was a great thing to meet him as an adult 2 years ago. Amazing, how time goes by. But from what I have heard, Howard loved the Lord, and was on fire, especially these last few months.

Just several months ago, one of my friends told me that he had seen Howard and that he was on fire for the Lord. So with sorrow I say to you Sister Badoo, we are so sorry, but we do understand that beyond a shadow of a doubt , Howard is with the Lord. God Bless you and the rest of the family, see you soon.

Love always from Danny and Anna Portalatin

We can't comprehend just how sad you must feel
For the loss of someone you love.
This sorrowful time must still feel unreal

And you're looking for strength from above.

I hope, from my heart, that your pain will decrease,
That your spirit will gain strength again,
And I pray that your faith will create inner peace
And that God will send blessings--Amen.

To the Badoo Family,

Please know that you are in my prayers. Though we may not be able to see it now, know also that God sees the end from the beginning, therefore, He also sees the outcome and the outcome is always good because He is faithful to His word and always keeps His promises. I know this because he kept me when my husband died suddenly in 2004.

Cry when you need to, laugh when you can, remember always, and lean on the Lord. Know this too, you will see Howie again one day.

TO MY BANDOOS FAMILY...

GOD TRULY IS "LOVE"!!! WITHOUT HIM, WHERE WOULD WE BE?

HOWARDS LOVE AND FAITH IN GOD BROUGHT HIM BACK TO HIS ONE AND ONLY...HIS BRIDE, SOULMATE, LOVER, BEST FRIEND, AND EVERYTHING ELSE THAT THEY SHARED.

THE BIBLE TELLS US PSALM 37:4...DELIGHT YOURSELF IN THE LORD, AND HE WILL GIVE YOU THE DESIRES OF YOUR HEART.

THANK YOU BROTHER HOWARD FOR BRINGING GOD'S WORDS TO LIVING COLOR FOR ME, AND HOPEFULLY TO ANYONE ELSE THAT MIGHT NEED SOME ENCOURAGEMENT.

IN MYSELF, I AM SO WEARY AND TIRED OF TRYING TO UNDERSTAND THE GOOD INSIDE ALL THE BAD...BUT THE LORD GIVES ME THE STRENGTH TO ENDURE THE PAIN AND HURT UNTIL I LET GO, AND I AM STILL BEFORE HIM, AND LET GOD BE GOD...

How would you know?...

The Saviours words...

If you never felt pain,

Then how would you know that Im a Healer?

If you never went through.

How would you know that Im a Deliverer?

If you never had a trial,

How could you call yourself an overcomer?

If you never felt sadness,

How would you know that Im a Comforter?

If you never made a mistake,

How would you know that Im forgiving?

If you knew all,

How would you know that I will answer your questions?

If you never were in trouble,

How would you know that I will come to your rescue?

If you never were broken,

Then how would know that I can make you whole?

If you never had a problem,

How would you know that I can solve them?

If you never had any suffering,

then how would you know what I went through?

If you never went through the fire,

then how would you become pure?

If I gave you all things,

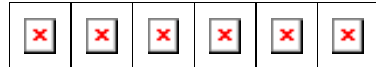

How would you appreciate them?

If I never corrected you,

How would you know that I love you?
If you had all power,
Then how would you learn to depend on me?
If your life was perfect,
Then what would you need Me for?

Howard's love for his family and friends meant more to him than words could ever describe. And as much as we loved Howard, God loved him much more. He's with his Heavenly Father now, his heart filled with happiness, his soul is at peace and he's looking forward to seeing us again.

It's only time that will heal your grieving heart, remember all the good times, rejoice and be encouraged, "Howard is right where he wants to be", in the loving arms of Jesus.

To the Bandoo family, you're in my prayers, you have my deepest sympathy.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Karen Badoo

I remember Howard as a young very cute school boy that I met at Hoosac School along with my then future husband Peter Badoo. One day Howard went skiing with a few school mates and decided to borrow a pair of skiis from one of the girls which did not fit his feet of course and so his feet were half way sticking out of the skiis and he broke his leg while actually trying to skii in them. WHAT WAS HE THINKING? he was thinking that he just wanted to have a good time and he did with broken leg and all. Howard always had a soft spot for me as his sister in law no matter what we went through. I mean we would fight and make up just like we were siblings. I guess that is all part of a privelege of knowing him and that person that he was.

Howard has always been a great uncle to my children. I mean when Adam first started school, he would actually volunteer his free time as the classroom parent and help the teachers. He did this very many times with a smile and actually enjoyed it. When Peter and I could not make it to parent teacher conferences in New Jersey, there was Uncle Howie to the rescue. He should have worn a cape. Howard I really did appreciate the fact that you never said no when we really needed you to come through. I have to say that he gave alot of himself to my family and his presence alone made my children very happy "Uncle Howie's here"!!!! Howard's greatest accomplishment is his little boy David whom I love very much. Thank you Howard for leaving a piece of you behind through little David.

I am very saddened by this loss for the Badoo family and my heart goes out to them. Howard will be truly missed. May you forever rest in peace

Desna "Dez" Francis

I remember the first time I ever saw Howard for the first time. We were both about to begin our freshman year in bible college. I was standing in the dorm lobby and in walked a tall, handsome, and distinguished guy with an amazing smile. Oh by the way, he had hair! Gorgeous hair. 😊 I said to myself, "I hope that I am fortunate to get to know him" Well, I did. Then was the beginning to a wonderful friendship, of which I will treasure until I see him again in the presence of Our Heavenly Father. Howard had the most precious gifts a friend could give to another. He was always there for support and encouragement. The world may have been crumbling down around him yet he always extended his heart towards the needs of others. I will always remember all the laughs we had together, the trips we took together, the prayers we prayed together, all the many beautiful memories we shared. Everytime I think of Howard I see a friend, a brother, a voice of calm, a conqueror, a man that fought the fight against the struggles of this world but who overcame through the mercies and lovingkindness of His God! Such a beautiful soul with an enormous amount of love for his family and friends. Howie, thank you for the journey of friendship that we shared and the love that I will treasure forever in my heart. I love you!

Beth Neloms (Benny's Cousin)

I will always remember Howie as Benny's "brother from another mother" along with Charles, Berto, Luis, "Funny Face", Junior, and all the others. You could usually always find them together but my special memories will always be of the "Alvarado/Robles" gatherings we would enjoy at my mom's (usually a family picnic in the summer or a new year's eve party). No one was a stranger. Everyone was family, including Howie. I guess that would make him my "cousin" too. Anyway, we miss you down here Howie but we will rejoice with you again one day. Until then hold down the fort until we meet again! 😊

grace & peace,

Beth

Adam Bando

You know what? This is pretty sad because its unexpected.... because of the time (i mean he just got married about three days before)... just because if you really knew Uncle Howie then you would know atleast a decent percentage of his personal life story and what he's been through...The crazy thing is that in some kind of way i feel like i was really closer to him more than he thought i was just because I always felt his pain. Sometimes I would feel like I was the only family member that showed the most compassion for him because according to the family, "the old Uncle Howie", was considered the bad example of what your life may turn out to be if you continue on this "negative path" or follow "this pipe dream" but as for me i would always oppose that argument in defense for my uncle or i would just think to myself "that there must be reasons for Uncle Howies actions or experiences" and i would always come to the conclusion that thats why I think Uncle Howie and I are compatible because we were always misunderstood, we had our own ways of interpreting things. Although I feel like we are in some ways compatible, but yet we are still different in many ways. I'm not saying that i always agreed with Uncle Howie because there would be arguements held to where i thought he was wrong, but we always got along except for when it came to the car because i was younger and always wanted to drive around and he was grown wanting to act younger...it was fun now that i look back! He always had my back if anybody had problems with me or any other family member, he'd tell me stories about him being a bounty hunter (that was interesting) i remember when he told me he used to live in atlanta he said he punched Usher and took his chain then pawned it the next day that's one of my favorites, when we used to live in athens he tried to give his son my cousin lil Dave a haircut in our bathroom turns out he gane him a bald cut because he didnt know what he was doing i was there i watched but lil dave still liked it though because it was obvoius that lil Dave always loved his dad no matter what but thats a diffrent story for my lil cousin to tell....but recently when i came across "the new Uncle Howie" it felt wierd and sad because this new him was very new to me..honestly it was very sad for me because i thought he totally lost it untill i saw him at his last wedding he was handsome she was beautiful (auntie maggie/his wife) i was so astound and that made me really realize that he was truely happy this time around ask ANYBODY!!! When i arrived he told me that I looked good, he always told me that i looked good and then he specifically said to me " you never disappoint me nephew you're always looking good"

But now what do we have? a man that had everything going the way he finally wanted as far as happiness by finding the lord and a "hot mama" as he requested from God through prayer he got right with all the family he was basically back on track but now he's gone unexpectedly the bright side of this is that he was happy and more peaceful when God called him and now he finally got to see his younger brother again my other uncle, Uncle David, the bad part is that we all miss you uncle Howie....

Benjamin Santiago

I will always remember the last time i saw Howard this past August. It was the first time I got to meet Maggie personally. As soon as I saw him, I saw the peace and the love that he finally was yearning for his whole life that I had known him. It was probably one of the happiest days we had together. Maggie was a little ball of fire, I saw that he finally had a woman who loved him for what he was and could put up with him. Give it as well as dish it! For as many memories as we had, and believe me we had a lot, this is the one that would stay in my heart forever. Rest in peace. Love your brother Ben

kristen alexandria bandoo

i remember when my family and i used to live in athens.

uncle howie moved into the same apartment complex as us.

it was great knowing that he lived right down the street.

we could go to his house anytime we wanted to and he would love to have us there.

one time we even spent the night on a school night; me josh and david.

Sometimes he would even take us to the pool.

it was so much fun to have him around cause he always had a sense of humor and there were hardley times when i saw him mad.

i love you uncle howie and i can't believe that your gone.

r.i.p.
